

Branka Aukst Margetić

Associate Professor, MD, PhD

Croatia

She is Associate Professor and scientific adviser with tenure graduated on Medical School in Zagreb, University of Zagreb in 1991. Her work in psychiatry started in Neuropsychiatric hospital “Dr Ivan Barbot” in 1992. She finished residency in psychiatry in 2001. and from 2009 - 2017.

worked in Department of psychiatry University Hospital Center Zagreb and since 2017 in Department of psychiatry University Hospital Center „Sestre milosrdnice“. She completed the master thesis in 2006. and doctoral thesis in 2010. at Medical School University of Zagreb. She is subspecialist in biological psychiatry and psychotherapy. She was engaged in psychotherapeutic educations in group analysis and cognitive behavioural therapy. So far, she authored over hundred scientific articles, 75 of them indexed in Current contents data base, wrote 14 book chapters, most of them university textbooks, and had numerous presentations on domestic and international congresses. She is cited over 1000 times in Web of science database with h index of 17. She is associate professor at Catholic university of Croatia and assistant professor in Medical School University of Zagreb. She is mentor on several doctoral and many graduation theses, cooperated on several international and domestic scientific projects and works as a reviewer for several international scientific journals. She is member of the editorial boards of Liječnički vjesnik, Archives of Psychiatry Research and Journal of Posttraumatic Stress Disorder & Treatment.

Scientific interest is in the area of personality, spirituality and religiosity in psychiatry and psychosomatic medicine.