

Nermina Ćurčić-Hadžagić

MD, MSc

Bosnia and Herzegovina

Born on 15.04.1962. in Sarajevo. She is employed at the Psychiatric Clinic of the Sarajevo University Clinical Center in the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry, as a specialist in Neuropsychiatry, a subspecialist of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Psychotherapy. Graduated from the Faculty of Medicine, University of Sarajevo, in 1988.

From 1989 to 1995 was general practitioner at the Institute for the Health Protection of Transport Workers in Sarajevo. She has been working at the Psychiatric Clinic of the Clinical Center of the University of Sarajevo since 1995. In 1999 finished training in Neuropsychiatry and have since worked in the Department of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry. Since 2012, she is the Head of Department. She defended master's thesis entitled "Psychosocial Characteristics of the Family and the Effects of Psychosocial Support for Abused Children" as a part of the Graduate Study "Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Psychology" at the University of Sarajevo in cooperation with the University of Umea (Sweden). From 2005 to 2010, she was educated in cognitive-behavioral psychotherapy, run by the Croatian Association for Behavioral-Cognitive Therapies. In 2015, she became a subspecialist of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry and Psychotherapy and received the title Primarius.

She participated in numerous symposia and congresses in the field of Psychiatry.